

Dr. Gerd Ramm

T +49 40 46 88 48 13

M +49 157 86793393

gerd.ramm@como-consult.de

Main Focus

- Strategy advice, project planning and evaluation in the areas of sustainable agriculture management of natural resources and good governance
- Organisational and management advice for projects and partner organisations of international cooperation
- Design, monitoring and advice of management and governance of projects

Project Examples

- Design and monitoring of a project managing natural resources in Ecuador over 6 years
- Process advice for the reorganisation of the planning ministry in Paraguay to improve its services
- Strategy and process advice of a REDD Project in Vietnam
- Capacity building for the governance of natural resources and sustainable agriculture in Latin America

Professional Background

- Degree in economics at the Universities of Hamburg and Göttingen
- Doctorate from Braunschweig and Hamburg
- Certificate in systemic and gestalt therapy approaches at the IGG in Berlin/Hamburg
- Consultant at Como since 1993, from 2001 to 2009 managing director
- GIZ assignment in Indonesia 1979-1982 (improvement of the agricultural market information services)
- GIZ assignment in Ecuador from 1985 to 1989 (promotion of livestock production)
- Office manager and coordinator of SME projects in Argentina from 1996 to 1998
- Working languages: German, English, Spanish